

MAMMOTH MASONIC TEMPLE DEDICATED

Many Prominent Members Attended Ceremonies—Cost Two Million.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The new two million dollar Masonic temple, headquarters of the Supreme Council of Scottish Rite Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, which also is called the Mother Council of the World, was dedicated here today with elaborate ceremonies and in the presence of a large assemblage of distinguished Masons from many parts of the country.

The stately structure fashioned after the famous mausoleum erected for King Mausolus by Queen Artemisia at Halicarnassus—one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, is unique among the many magnificent buildings in the national capital. It has been under construction since 1911 when ground was broken. It stands on Sixteenth Street about one mile from the White House on the capital's finest boulevard and in a section of the city where many of the nation's most celebrated public men have lived during their public service in Washington.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with Sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautiful dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tea, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Town Attracts Motorists in Novel Manner.

Lacconer, a little town in Washington, is situated some distance from one of the state highways used by many motor tourists. It boasts, however, a lone hill which commands the best view obtainable of Skagit Valley, one of the rich farming districts of that section. In order to draw the passing tourists from their beaten path and attract them to Lacconer for the advantage of local business, the community has constructed a winding road to the summit of the hill and there built an observation stand. To advertise the lookout point, the word "Auto View" have been painted in letters 8 ft. high on the wall of a water reservoir at the hill's crest. This sign is sufficiently large to be seen for a long distance. A view of the hill and stand appears in the November Popular Mechanics Magazine.

WILSON TO ADVOCATE PROGRAM ON DEFENSE IN NEW YORK SPEECH

Washington, Oct. 18.—President Wilson will open the campaign for his national defense program in a speech before the Manhattan club in New York November 4. It will be the president's first public utterance on the subject since he approved the plans prepared by Secretaries Daniels and Garrison. It is expected to be of significance, because the president is expected to disclose reasons he will urge upon congress why the United States should be more adequately prepared for defense.

The president today received a letter from the Maryland Peace Delegation for national defense, asking him to take steps to assure the United States against attack from abroad. It was declared in the letter that the Maryland people believed the president should use his influence to place the United States in a position to protect itself and citizens from aggression or oppression by any foreign power. A five-year naval building program contemplating the addition of 16 capital ships to the navy will tax the normal capacity of the American yards during the period set. Secretary Daniels said that the fact had weight in determining over what period, the expenditure of five hundred millions, which is asked will be distributed. The American yards now have contracts to keep them engaged several years.

THE MUTUAL BENEFIT'S OLDEST POLICY

Portland, Me., January 21, 1915.

Mr. Walter DeC. Moore, General Agent, The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., Portland, Me.

Dear Mr. Moore: This is my 70th year as a policyholder with the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company. My policy now contains privileges and benefits not dreamed of at the time it was written, but today deemed essential to modern life insurance. Trusteeship of a high order is evident in all this and I want you to consider me as first in admiration for the successive management of the Company, which have made such results possible, as well as first in age of insurance.

My policy is for $3,500 insurance. I am informed that the Company would now pay to me for the policy a cash surrender value of $3,283.96, although I have made actual payments to the Company of only $1,342.20. I could, therefore receive back all of my original investment and $1,941.76 more than I paid for the policy, a return over my investment of over $27.50 a year for each of the seventy years that I have been insured.

You tell me that my policy is the oldest on the books of the Mutual Benefit, having been issued in 1846, one year after the Company's organization and the first year it did business in Maine. What I bought was a "Die to Win" policy, but it has proven to be a "Live to Win" policy in a Company which has always made SECURITY and MUTUALITY the first considerations. My policy is now as thoroughly MODERN as the market today affords.

I write this letter in the hope that it will influence many to secure the benefits which I have enjoyed.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH L. WINSLOW.

Did You Notice That:

—the average cost for seventy years has been only $5.48 per $1,000,
—the 1915 regular Dividend not only paid the annual premium of $54.60 but in addition gave the insured $3.18 in cash,
—the available Cash Surrender value of the policy in 1915 was increased $39.67 after paying the above unprecedented dividend,
—the present Cash Surrender value, available upon demand, is almost two and one-half times the sum of all the premium payments.
It pays to insure while you are young.
It pays to insure in THE MUTUAL BENEFIT.
Write for our pamphlet, "A Serene and Care-Free Old Age," which gives a full history of the Winslow policy.
